Chaplain's Reflection

Chaplain Ian Lutze

Some people might say it is bad luck to wish people a Happy New Year too early – like, before Christmas as I'm doing here. But I guess there's no harm in it, and it is the wish of my heart that I will see all of you again when I get back from a not-too-long holiday. And I'm sure I speak for all the staff in saying this. We love our residents, and get quite attached to many of you. So what will 2019 bring? With a little, 'crystal ball gazing' can I suggest the following:

- A couple of our residents are likely to reach the 100 year milestone this year, plus some other significant anniversaries.
- We'll also say goodbye to some residents and feel sad to see them go. We will also feel blessed to have known them.
- Many staff will grow immensely in their roles, and find great meaning, satisfaction, appreciation and support in what they do here at TLH.
- Other staff will discern that this is not where they are meant to be right now. Sadly, more goodbyes.
- Daily life will be lived with the low-key experiences of joy, struggle, sickness, healing, inspiration and boredom. Another day in the life....
- Great connection, meaning and support will be experienced as staff adjust to new accreditation standards, and some strategic support assists us in getting used to what is only the second set of standards the aged care sector has ever had. In my own 'corner' I'll have an assistant chaplain creating inspiring connection and spiritual care beyond what I can offer by myself.
- The community beyond TLH will continue to notice that something special is happening here, and more people will want to be a part of it, and us.

God is with us for another year. What that entirely means is a question for another Tit Tat. But simply being aware of the question, and what it potentially means, makes this place special.

Happy New Year!!

From the CEO

Lee Martin

Well, I trust you all have enjoyed the busy lead up to Christmas with your loved ones and look forward to a relaxing break while we take in the New Year.

The weather is beyond comment - hot then cold.. The vines look great and the Barossa Valley is a pretty picture.

As mentioned in the last Tit Tat we have achieved so much in 2018. We can now add to the list the title of "Best Community Float" in the 2018 Barossa Christmas Parade held on the 7th December 2018. The TLH float brought to life the artwork of the River of Life that is displayed in the Gramp corridor. With the assistance of TLH residents from the Home and ILUs, volunteers, IRL's family and staff the float presentation was remarkable. It was great fun on the night – everyone involved were delighted with the experience. Being awarded the prize tops it all off bigger and better next time. A big thank you to the organisers of the float.

The major focus for the next couple of months is the completion of a submission to the Aged Care Royal Commission. This is a very comprehensive process and will require many hours of work by a small team putting statistics together. Bev Galway will head up the team. Over the coming weeks it is requested that if there are any day to day issues regarding clinical processes or care I invite you to talk to me directly. Happy for people to make appointments via Britany or if my door is open come and say hello. As a trial there will be some changes in who sits in what office – this will occur over the Christmas period.

The Aged Care Royal Commission does have a website. Please keep an eye on it. As previously mentioned, if you would like something clarified please come and ask me – more than happy to assist. The Royal Commission Hearings are being televised and can be watched via the website. TLH staff and the Board are being kept informed by numerous informative emails and meetings.

It is pleasing to report we have been very fortunate to have been able to employ a number of staff into clinical rolls. Welcome to you all. It is also pleasing to see that a number of staff who moved on to other engagements have returned – always happy to have staff come back. We still do have rostered hours available for qualified clinical staff – please check out the TLH website for an application form. Our goal is to reduce agency to it's bare minimum so we can ensure the Person-Centred Care model is even more successful.

The Staff General Meeting was a success with a growing number of staff recognised for their length of service and appointment as Value Champions. Congratulations to all who received Certificates. The launch of the Customer Service video was a great way to demonstrate what we at TLH expect as positive customer service. Completing the video again shows how the residents really enjoy getting involved and having fun at the same time. To all involved well done and thank you.

The project in Nuriootpa is moving along – the actual building works have commenced with seven foundation slabs completed. The house frames will be starting late January 2019. Expressions of interest in purchasing a new property continues – if you know anyone interested in joining the retirement village family please refer them Carolyn Redden.

Welcome to all new residents and their families in the facility and to the independent Retirement Living units – if there is anything we can do to make things better please let us know by completing a Feedback form readily available.

Please stay safe over the Christmas period. Do not drink and drive. If travelling, please take a rest every two hours. See you fresh and rested in the new year – I'm taking a short break. Cherie and Bev will be available in my absence.

Happy New Year 2019

Shared Heart Performing Arts Project

Are you an actor just waiting for your time to shine?

Don't miss this unique opportunity to develop your performance skills and travel to another country!

The Shared Heart Performing Arts Project "is an international community collaboration to devise a new piece of short theatre which explores the common experiences we share as elders of this world."

Vintage Creative Therapies is seeking expressions of interest from older community members who are willing to participate as performers in a new short, theatre performance piece entitled 'Shared Heart' to be presented as part of the 'Heart of The City Festival' in Vancouver, Canada.

No previous performance experience is necessary, but participants must be aged 65 years or older, be independent, able to travel and be willing to promote the incredible cultural diversity, skills, shared experiences and life potential of older people of the world. The performance piece will include some puppetry.

The approximate cost is $5,000 each and participants are encouraged to undertake fundraising within their community to support their involvement in this exciting, once in a lifetime opportunity.

A brochure with more information is available at the office or contact:

Alan Hendry at Vintage Creative Therapies on 0479 007 753.

Independent Retirement Living Lionel Folland

Welcome, Lionel to TLH Independent Retirement Living. Lionel is very happy to have made the move from Gawler to be closer to his family.
Thank you for sharing your story

Lionel and siblings
Beth and Gordon

Lionel began life at the Gawler Hospital in January 1934, first child for "French" and Dulcie Folland. In due time, the family grew to three—another boy, Gordon, now living in Adelaide, and sister Beth who resides in Moree NSW. Lionel's parents owned a small property at Willaston where they milked two cows. Later the family moved to a big old house at Gawler South and the children walked to Gawler Primary School until they became proud owners of push bikes.

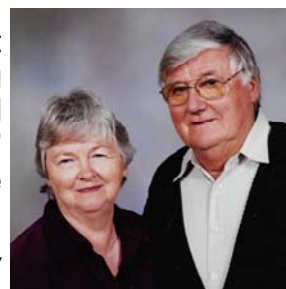

Lionel says he was an 'average' student but slipped back somewhat after a bout of illness and consequent removal of tonsils and adenoids, resulting in he and little sister Beth (as well as Cousin Charlie!) all being in Grade 1 together. While Beth furthered her education at a private school in Adelaide, Lionel was offered a job by Mr Bunting and, with his father's encouragement, gave it a go. So Lionel left school in grade 6 with a good work ethic and with guidance, became a painter. He is proud to say that as a lad, he painted the front of Gawler Institute, a very big building that required the loan of a local plumber's long ladder. But it still wasn't long enough, presenting Lionel with a major challenge. Lionel gained employment with a building contractor who offered him five pounds a week to paint old houses. Average age at the time was three pounds! Aged 16-17, Lionel began his apprenticeship with Mr Ayling as a carpenter/joiner, maintaining a family tradition. But unfortunately Mr Ayling suffered injuries due to moving heavy cast iron bath tubs so "French" took over the business.

At the start of WWII Lionel was called up for National Service, based at Woodside, then transferred to Port Augusta for a couple of weeks driving trucks. He recalls going to Adelaide when HRH Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip were there. Lionel was a Boys' Scout leader in the Barossa for a long time and organized weekend camps.

Chris and James
Bartsch

Lionel met his future wife Glenice and they had two children - a son Brenton and daughter Chris who is married to James Bartsch. Lionel is proud grandfather to four and has one great grandson.

With late wife Glenice

With increasing age and loss of car and driving licence, Lionel realised he needed to consider a move. He sold his house, the car and unfortunately was followed by a spell in hospital with an attack of shingles that he claims was caused by all the worry of what to do with his 20' x 30' garage full of stuff! But he needn't have worried - he was supported by his family who surprised him by moving all his belongings to his lovely new home in Hoffmann Avenue and all his shed stuff now fits into his double garage.

PROFILE

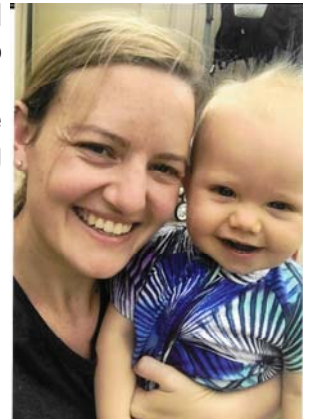

With Grandson Nate

These days Lionel enjoys company and entertainment once a week at TLH Barossa Club with other Clubbies, membership at Gawler Probus, playing with his large collection of 'Smurfs' when the grandchildren come and generally enjoying retirement after a full working life.

Thank you Lionel for sharing your story with our readers.

TRAVEL TALK

SMALL GROUP TOURING

Want to experience the Small-group touring concept with leisurely regional tours throughout the UK and Europe ? Tours explore local areas that might otherwise be missed such as Cornwall, La Provence, Loire Valley, the Scottish Highlands and Northern Italy.

Maximum Group Size 18

With a maximum of 18 passengers, their professional tour leaders are able to offer a more personalised experience, with more attention to the interests of individuals and flexible touring days

Scenic back roads not freeways

Mini-coaches can travel along local roads and across breath-taking mountain passes, to find charming villages and picturesque vistas which lie beyond the well-worn tourist trails, and reach places where large motor coaches cannot go

Charming Accommodation

They choose charming accommodation to reflect the character of the region you visit, from a French chateau, to a small country inn. Every style of accommodation is in keeping with its surrounds and brings more authenticity to the itinerary

Authentic Local Experiences

Local experiences have greater appeal than attractions on the typical tourist trail. They take the time to seek out experiences where the guests can relate to local crafts and culture

Culinary Experiences

Sampling local cuisine is an integral part of experiencing the culture – not to mention one of life's pleasures. They include authentic culinary experiences which are locally sourced

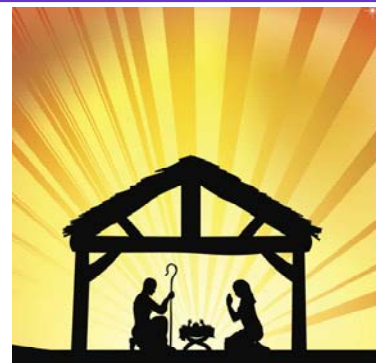

Leisurely Paced Itineraries

They rarely leave the accommodation before 8.30am and the itineraries are thoughtfully planned to avoid cramming too much into one day.

The TLH Singers entertained us with Christmas carol singing - even provided song books for the Clubbies to join in!

And So... We Welcome 2019... Where Did 2018 Go?

We trust that your Christmas time was full of laughter and cheer and you feel refreshed and ready for what this year may present for you.

Our Christmas photos will appear next month in the February edition of the Tit Tat for all to enjoy at your leisure...and what fun we had in Barossa Club as we enjoyed a variety of concerts, Christmas fun games...including 'pass the parcel' after our delicious Xmas luncheon!

A new year encourages exciting opportunities and we look forward to including new activities and guests in Barossa Club.

The Clubbies always enjoy a chat and social time whilst consuming a delicious lunch made by the great catering team here @ TLH.

Some of the Clubbies enjoying the latest bus lunch outing to Fasta Pasta in Gawler.

We are still trying to work out what is going on with the such diverse weather we are experiencing...still a continuing chat over a cuppa here in Club.

So from the Barossa Staff Club Team...Happy New Year to you all...Lea, Pam and Debbie

Pam teaching a few keen Clubbies a new game to us in Barossa Club called Sequence.
