Chaplain's Reflection

One of the tasks associated with growing older is to take the time to reflect on how the world is going and where we sit among all that is right and all that is wrong in the world. A lot of people feel quite stressed these days when they watch the news. Some of our residents wonder whether the best of times are behind us now.

This reflection is quite subjective of course. We really mean "My best times are behind me", because the present moment is always the best of times for somebody somewhere. Recessions have come and gone, wars have come and gone, droughts, floods, pandemics...

If I'm sounding a bit Dickensian right now you'd be right. The Tale of Two Cities, of which I'm currently reading a battered old copy with a name written in by fountain pen, begins with "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness ..." The times were just before the French Revolution, and the Brits were sending convicts to Australia. Best of times?

Perspective is needed. We live in great times in many ways, even while our own time may be coming to a close. We hope and pray for good times for those who come after us.

We pray that God would be 'Lord of our days' and that the best things to happen to us, which may be just around the corner, may be perceived as signs of the Creator's continued commitment to this fine planet on which we live.

Go well, and comfort yourself with a bit of Dickens!

Chaplain Ian.

From the CEO

Lee Martin

Boy oh boy it's been cold lately and yes there is more rain coming too.

Have you heard the news – Tanunda Lutheran Home has completed a three-day audit of the Aged Care Standards and outcomes. We received a score of 43 out of 44 outcomes. In the Industry it is a remarkable outcome. We have been referred to as the “diamond in the aged care industry”. The one outcome not met was a minor issue and has been rectified already. The overall result should mean that TLH will be Accredited for a period of three years. A celebration for staff occurred with food and drinks – those staff who attended had a great time celebrating.

The audit was conducted by four nice auditors who maintained a very relaxed atmosphere during their time with us. Many staff, residents and families were interviewed. We are very proud of the positive comments that were provided then fed back to us. To everyone involved in the process thank you for your efforts. It really is nice to know that we are really doing well in providing above levels of care and support to our residents and staff.

All our projects are going really well. The four new resident rooms are coming along. We look forward to them being completed around September / October 2022. Once the rooms are commissioned our occupancy will increase to close to 100 percent which means our funding also increases – so supporting staff to provide the care.

Sales of the retirement units is doing very well. Thanks to Greg Hamilton who is negotiating the sales. Nine of the 15 units at Langmeil are taken. We can't build until fast enough over at Nuriootpa – we have sold many units before they're built. Please let your friends know that the units are very reasonably priced in the Barossa real estate market. Planning work has commenced on the Angaston project to provide a number of units.

You may be seeing articles in the paper or on television about the state of aged care and the effects of COVID-19 throughout Australia. At TLH we are just now seeing the end of an outbreak of COVID-19 that affected many staff and our residents. Throughout the months of the COVID-19 pandemic TLH has met all infection control requirements and have a very good stock of PPE for staff to use. The use of total lockdown processes has been reviewed to now allowing at least one visitor per day to visit their relative in the Home. There are also other ways that residents can and are encouraged to maintain contact with their families. It is pleasing to report that 100 percent of staff are compliant with the current mandatory vaccination requirements. Staff are expected to complete refresher training in Infection Control and the related processes.

As I'm sure you are all aware the latest CPI figures are starting to take effect on the day-to-day costs. Please ensure you budget for the important household expenses. To ensure your continued health please use the air-conditioner to maintain a comfortable temperature in the unit – being too cold or too hot will heighten the chances of becoming unwell. The same with food, maintain a good diet and drink plenty of fluids. As best you can stay active – come and join the gym group in the physio department.

Finally, I'm taking some time off to re-charge my batteries. Sharon Berridge will be acting CEO in my absence, feel free to contact her via the TLH reception number. On my return I expect to continue the positive journey of ensuring TLH maintains the reputation it has grown over the past years.

Whatever is good for your soul, do that.
