Chaplain's Reflection

Easter is inevitably an interesting time of the year to work in aged care from a spiritual care perspective.

Most of us put heart and effort into the daily tasks of improving life for ourselves, and others, in this world. And haven't there been some huge collective challenges in recent weeks: rolling out the COVID vaccines, seeking to make homes, workplaces and our parliaments safe places for women, and a huge recovery effort for flood-affected areas. We love working in this world to improve things. That's what we do.

It's a little different for people approaching the end of their lives in this world. Many people have taken for granted that there is a Heaven that they'll enjoy after they die. The question of Heaven becomes more urgent for older people. Often, in very quiet ways, people look again at the things they believe in, checked out how real they are, and pondered what the future might look like and whether there's anything they still have to do to prepare for that future. Some people's hearts are very much in Heaven already, especially if they believe a loved one is waiting for them.

Which brings us to Easter – the celebration in the Christian tradition of a crucified man, Jesus, rising from the dead and entering a new life, with the promise that all who believe in him have the same destiny – that is, to rise into a fantastic new life after they have died.

Easter's got to make many people excited, especially people who've done their bit in this life and don't feel that they have much more to offer. The invitation is for everybody to get at least a little bit excited about Easter, even if it is not yet their story. It can be. It's meant to be. It's God's free gift. Nobody is excluded.

Happy Easter to you all!

Chaplain Ian.

HAPPY EASTER

Kim Hahn, People, Culture and Customer Service Manager

I hope 2021 is being kind to all of you so far, I am not sure where the year is going, or how it is possible that we have reached April and Easter already!

TLH has entered into our re-accreditation phase, as of the 15th March, we are on notice to receive an unannounced audit of compliance assessment with all 8 Aged Care Quality Standards. The audit will be conducted by the Australian Aged care Quality and Safety Commission sometime between now and the 1st of September. The official notification has been sent to all Residents and Representatives and is on display throughout the home. We are excited to be given the opportunity to demonstrate to the regulatory body, the care and services all of our staff and volunteers continue to provide to you and your loved ones.

As of the 1st of April we move from Mandatory Reporting to the Serious Incident Reporting Scheme (SIRS), the new Government Initiative to help reduce risk of abuse and neglect for residents living or staying in a residential aged care home. We are dedicated to our duty to protect our Residents and have welcomed the opportunity to review, create and implement policies, procedures and education that ensures we are meeting the new requirements within the scheme. Further information regarding SIRS is provided within the Quality article.

During the last few weeks, I have had the opportunity to be out and about a little bit more, within your Neighbourhoods.

I have loved being able to chat with you and your families, thank you for all of the suggestions you have provided and the beautiful compliments you express regarding your experiences at your home. Hearing how you feel about the staff that care for you, always brightens my day.

It has also been wonderful to see the changes our ILU Residents have made within the Social Centre, you are really forming such an active little community hub, and it is just lovely to see you all on a more frequent basis.

I have also had several meetings of which family members have provided feedback, thank you so much. We are here to help and appreciate any feedback given that allows us the chance to; make improvements, find solutions, understand our Residents even better and strive to provide satisfaction within their experiences.

During such a busy time within the aged care industry, with COVID requirements, the Royal Commission, SIRS and the Re-accreditation of TLH, it is easy for us all to feel a little tired. However, the encounters we have with all of you, from our Residents and their Visitors, to our truly amazing Volunteers, you give us energy, motivation and happiness that no material reward could ever match - Thank you!

Wishing you all a blessed Easter filled with love and happiness.
Kim

Quality assessors from the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission (Commission) will be visiting to check the quality of care and services at Tanunda Lutheran Home Inc.

This assessment is called a site audit. The audit will be unannounced, so the service will not be aware of which day or week the audit will be conducted.

When quality assessors visit the home, you (or someone who represents you) will be given the opportunity to talk to an assessor about the quality of your care and services.

You (or someone who represents you) can also provide information prior to the audit. You can do this by calling the Commission on 1800 951 822 (press option 2) or completing an online survey with the Commission.

The survey asks about your experience of quality and safety at your aged care service. You can access this survey at the following address. <https://www.agedcarequality.gov.au/consumer-feedback>. To open the survey, use the code 6098

The Commission respects the privacy of your information and will not provide us with the details that you have discussed with them, unless you agree to this, or where they are very concerned about your care.

Your personal information and comments will be used by quality assessors when conducting the site audit, and also when they prepare their report about the quality of care and services provided here.

For information on the Commission's privacy policy and practices, please refer to the Commission's website agedcarequality.gov.au or contact the Commission on 1800 951 822.

If you need interpreter assistance, please call Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450 and ask for Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission.

SERIOUS INCIDENT RESPONSE SCHEME (SIRS)

The Serious Incident Response Scheme (SIRS) will come into effect on 1 April 2021. From this date, providers of residential aged care and flexible aged care (where care is delivered in a residential care setting) must have an effective incident management system in place. They will also need to begin reporting 'Priority 1' incidents within 24 hours. To prepare for the changes, the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission has developed a number of support materials. For more information visit the Commission's website.

Providers will report incidents through a new tile on the My Aged Care Provider Portal. Providers should make sure enough staff have access to the portal to submit reports on time. For information on accessing the My Aged Care Provider Portal, including easy to use guides, visit the department's website.

ROYAL COMMISSION

Final report calls for fundamental and systemic aged care reform

The Final Report of the Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety was tabled in Parliament today.

In their Report, titled Care, Dignity and Respect, Royal Commissioners Tony Pagone QC and Lynelle Briggs AO call for fundamental reform of the aged care system:

For too long, they say, the legislation that governs aged care in Australia has focused on the funding requirements of aged care providers rather than the care needs of older people. They propose a clearly articulated purpose for the new aged care system:

"To deliver an entitlement to high quality care and support for older people, and to ensure that they receive it. The care and support must be safe and timely and must assist older people to live an active, self-determined and meaningful life in a safe and caring environment that allows for dignified living in old age."

The Royal Commissioners make 148 wide-ranging recommendations.

The Royal Commissioners have recommended that the Australian Government report to Parliament by 31 May 2021 its response to their recommendations.

The Final Report comprises 5 volumes.

- Volume 1: Summary and recommendations
- Volume 2: The current system
- Volume 3: The new system
- Volume 4: Hearing overviews and case studies
- Volume 5: Appendices
