

Who we are?

Lutheran Homes Barossa (LHB) has grown to be one of the largest aged care facilities in rural South Australia since its inception in 1952 and continues to operate as a not-for-profit incorporated body governed by a dedicated Voluntary Board of Directors.

The Home was founded on the vision, generosity and determination of the community to create a facility of unprecedented community value that would serve the aged care consumers.

What do our Volunteers do?

- Driving our Special Transport Vehicle
